Updates at NBC Tower

NBC Tower Staff Update

We're pleased to announce Jacob's promotion to Assistant Chief Engineer at NBC Tower. Jake brings 23 years of engineering experience with the building, making him a familiar and trusted presence on our team. Please say hello to Jake if you see him around the building.

Fitness Center Payment Portal Update

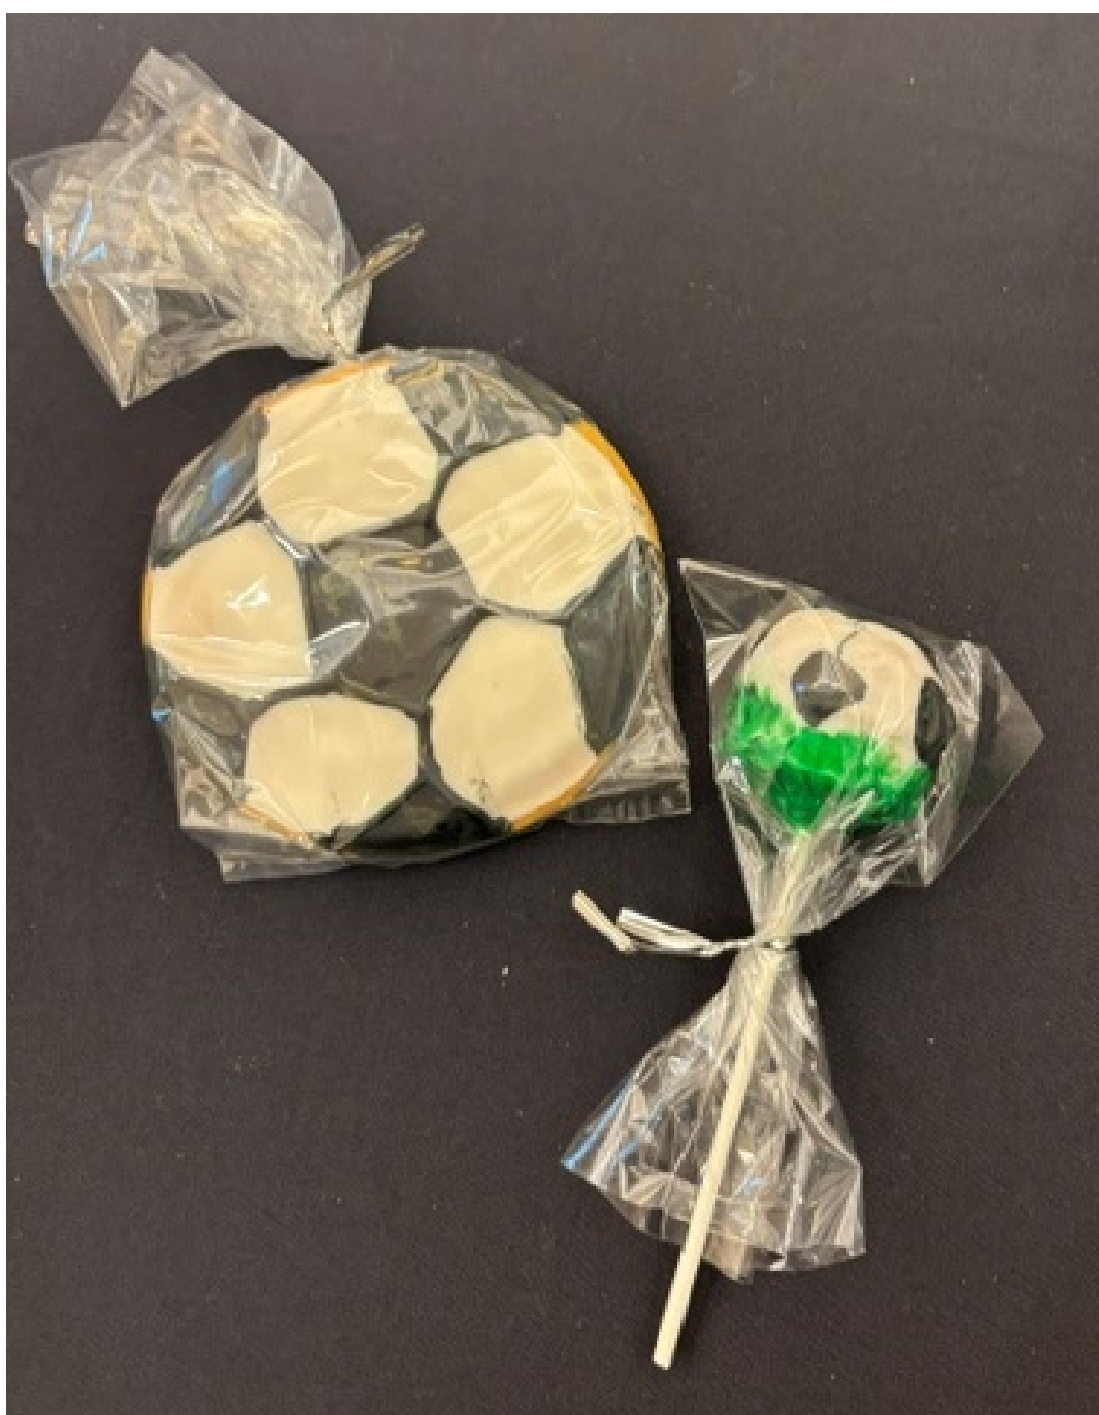

The NBC Tower Fitness Center has transitioned to a new login portal for membership payments. All members should have received an email from Legacy in April with instructions for accessing the new system.

Please note: If you have any outstanding balances, access on your badge has been temporarily removed until payment is processed. If you have questions about your account status or need assistance with the new portal, please contact NBC.Tower@jll.com.
